All updates in GREEN below.

KEY FINDINGS

- Slow roll convoys are planned on 2022/02/05 to start from Fort McMurray, Westlock, Lac La Biche, Athabasca and a number of other areas, with the intent to converge at the Co-op Grocery Store on Railway Avenue in Boyle at 10:00.
- The regular weekly rally in Okotoks is going to host Personal Info. well known anti-lockdown activist who often attracts large crowds. The same group hosting this event is also hosting another "slow roll" protest in Okotoks on 2021/02/06.
- Cochrane Unite "Stand for Freedom" Rally in Cochrane on 2021/02/06.
- A group called Farmers 4 Freedom has tentatively planned to block Highway 2 between Ponoka and Lacombe on 2022/02/03 for three hours with farm equipment, however, they are currently debating if that protest should happen due to possible lack of manpower. UPDATE: it appears that this protest will go ahead, the number of attendees is uncertain. See the post below for further details on areas where they plan to start.
- There is a call for an Alberta-wide school walkout for students opposed to mask mandates in schools. The alleged organizer is based out of Drayton Valley. This event is gaining some traction on social media but currently unknown how big it will become.
- Another Alberta-wide convoy protest is planned for Saturday, 2022/02/05, starting from Aldersyde in the South and travelling up the QEII. UPDATE: There are organizers planning convoys to start from locations all around Alberta. The group starting in Acheson will likely have the most participants, followed by the group starting in Nisku.

- Airdrie Speakers Corner Protest at Airdrie Co-op 2022/02/06

Comment: It is unknown how much participation this convoy is going to attract. The organizer Person Personal Info. is trying to drum up support by promoting this event in a number of different local Facebook groups, but doesn't seem to be gaining a lot of traction. However, several of the cities that are included in this plan had significant turnouts for last weekend's support rally

Comment: The current plan is to have at least two groups, one starting at the Menaik overpass north of Ponoka, and one starting north of Lacombe on Highway 2A. The goal is to have additional people start at different areas, but some of the participants are worried that there will not be enough people attending to make a statement and want to consolidate the groups.

Farmers For Freedom Highway Blockade – UPDATED 18:00

Personal Info. 59m ·

Is it an idea to have people from each area meet up at the same place on the highway? That way we have more of a convoy starting. If every farmer starts at an overpass and there is only one or 2 tractors at certain spots it won't really look like a convoy. Maybe we can pick a few spots along highway 2 to meet up? Seeing what everyone thinks of that idea

COMMENT: This protest was advertised by the Alberta Blue Skies Facebook group, which often disseminates information about various events happening throughout the province. It was posted today at 08:06 and has since generated 52 comments and 239 shares. The poster has been shared by a few other people on Facebook as well, however nobody seems to be indicating that they are participating or that they know of people who plan to participate. The organizer is based out of Drayton Valley, so there may be a protest at a high school there. Alberta Blue Skies does have 73,397 followers so this event could gain more traction.
